

Japanese Dance (Buyo) and Buyo Exercise Workshop

- ❁ Nihon buyo (日本舞踊) is a Japanese traditional performance art based on dance and pantomime with more than 400 years of history. Performers wearing elaborate kimono and makeup express the character's feeling and movement with music and songs.
- ❁ Join us for a presentation and performance by dance master Shinojo Nishikawa and her troupe. Ms. Nishikawa is a veteran teacher and dancer with experience presenting this rich cultural heritage internationally.
- ❁ At the end of the performance, the audience will learn the gentle fitness routine inspired by the traditional movements.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

ADMISSION: FREE

Contact: Yukako Ishimaru yukako.ishimaru@sru.edu

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2017

4-6 p.m.

SLIPPERY ROCK UNIVERSITY

THEATER RM, SMITH STUDENT CENTER (3F)