2018 FALL FILM SERIES PRESENTER'S FAVORITES

THE BALLAD OF NARAYAMA Keisuke Kinoshita, 1958

In a remote mountain village where food is scarce, tradition dictates that citizens who reach their 70th year must be carried to Mount Narayama and left to die. Orin, a dignified and dutiful woman, spends her dwindling days securing the happiness of her loyal widowed son with a respectable new wife.

LOVE IN THE 1980s Huo Jianqi, 2015

As an unrequited love affair promises to re-ignite after the random paths of former high school sweethearts cross in rural China, the relationship is cast adrift again amid the swirl of political undercurrents.

THE VERTICAL RAY OF THE SUN Tran Anh Hung, 2000

This is the story of three sisters who live close to each other in present-day Hanoi. On the anniversary of their mother's death, the sisters meet at Suong's café to pray, prepare the memorial meal, and greet their relatives.

PRINCESS MONONOKE Hayao Miyazaki, Animated, 1997

An animated, historical fantasy war epic, this story follows the young Emishi prince Ashitaka's involvement in a struggle between the gods of a forest and the humans who consume its resources.
