AFRICAN MASKS

6:30pm - 8:00pm

THURSDAY

5/14

When you think of African masks do you think of a Freudian psychiatric office or an African witch doctor? Dr. Cynthia Marshall who collects African masks as artistic sculpture knows their purpose encompasses the beauty of story telling and so much more. You are invited to enter into the world of African masks and their tribal and cultural significance. You will find through her lecture a much more complex and subtle view of masks as art.
